The king, who was nearest, turned to pass it to him; at the sight of it he uttered his dear "ventre-saint-gris! It was a flat, oblong packet, tied about with common twine, the seal cut out. The king twitched the string off, and with one rapid glance at the papers put them into monsieur's hand.

As we walked there gently across the square, which at this rash hour we alone shared with the twittering birds,

The man who was going into the lion's den was far less solemn over it. By fate and starts, as he thought on his son's great danger, he contrived a gloomy countenance; but monsieur had ridden all his life with Hope on the pillow; she did not desert him now. As we cantered steadily along in the fresh, cool morning he already pictured M. Etienne released. However mad he acknowledged his errand to be, I think he was scarce visited by a doubt of its

Don't Have "Spring Fever"

What you must do is to get the blood pure—by stirring up the liver—making the bowels regular and the stomach sweet. The quickest, and surest, and pleasant way to do all this is to take Abbey's Salt. It's the best spring tonic. 25c and 60c a bottle.

"Spring Fever" is just another name for Biliousness, Irregular Bowels, Upset Stomach.

The Despair of the Dyspeptic

Who Has Sought in Vain for Cure From Mere Stomach Treatments and Neglected the Liver and Bowels.

The sufferer from indigestion and liver troubles "feels blue" all the time. Office cars easily rattle the irritable temper which the dyspeptic always has, and as a result the surroundings are most unpleasant for all.

The real serious forms of indigestion and dyspepsia arise from the fermentation of the food in the intestines, where the most important part of digestion takes place. In this way such symptoms as the following commence:

Formation of gas causing pain.
Rifling of wind and churning sensations in the breast.
Pains about the heart, with feelings of heaviness and drowsiness. Irritability of temper and despondency.

The bowels are sometimes constipated and again too loose. There is headache and dizziness, coated tongue, bad taste in mouth, foul breath, loss of appetite, pain and rumbling in the bowels. It is in these serious and complicated derangements of the digestive system that show their remarkable control over the organs of digestion and excretion, and cure where mere digestive tablets and stomach treatments fail.

The flow of bile resulting from quickening the course of the food along the alimentary canal, prevents fermentation and ensures good digestion and assimilation. Indigestion, biliousness and constipation are speedily and thoroughly cured and vigor and health are fully restored.

FOR ASPARAGUS.

Suitable Fertilizer. With Formula For Home Mixing.

There are a great many kinds of asparagus raised all over the world. Some are better than others. Some are more tender and some are more hardy. Some are more productive and some are more profitable. Some are more suitable for home use and some are more suitable for market use.

PROFIT IN ONIONS.

Satisfactory Returns in Growing the Yellow Globe Variety.

An instance of where Connecticut early variety farmers are making farm money is afforded by the experience of Arthur Hollett of Franklin county, Mass. On a hill about a half acre of his land there was harvested 2500 bushels of Yellow Globe onions.

The Foundation of a Good Bed

The foundation is the most important part of a building.
It is on the foundation that the whole weight of the structure rests. A fault in the foundation means the entire building at fault.

$8 - A "Banner" Spring Bed - $8

Is the foundation of a good bed. A "BANNER" bed is the right principle to begin with, because spring splits are the only ones which will not sag in the middle—will not stretch out of shape—will not lose their springiness.

The "BANNER" is the perfect spring bed.
It is made of best quality iron spiral springs. These are all tempered, like a razor blade—jammed to prevent rust—and rigidly attached to flat steel bands which in turn are riveted to angle iron sides. This method of construction also enables the "Banner" to fit any bed without the use of slats.

If you want a bed that is useless—that will hold its shape—that will always be easy and comfortable—and that is guaranteed by a life-time you should certainly buy the "BANNER" Spring Bed. The price is $8—anywhere.

This trademark is your guarantee of quality.

TO DIVIDE MANCHURIA

China's Integrity Again Threatened by Russia and Japan.
—Indirect Discrimination Against Other Nations.

March 29, 11.—Under the other great powers within the facts and all China in her relations to the acquisition of Russia and Japan, Manchuria, that rich province will soon be divided in a mere dependency of the two nations which fight their great war in it. Such is the situation of affairs here, which declare that despite the assurances given by the governments at Tokyo and St. Petersburg, the autonomy of China is being gradually undermined in various ways.

There are many indications of a joint action between Russia and Japan to support each other's demands on the Pacific Government, and that Russia shall become interested in the city of Harbin has been pointed out. Russia's contention that her powers of administration over the railway grants include the civil government of the city of Harbin has been pointed out as a crucial test apparently for the city of Harbin has been pointed out.

Russian Department of Agriculture is Attacked in the House.
St. Petersburg, April 11.—The conduct of the Russian Department of Agriculture was severely attacked in the House yesterday during the discussion of the agricultural budget. Disparagement was expressed with the failure to accomplish greater results towards securing larger land holdings for the peasants, the adoption of modern scientific methods of farming, etc.

The speaker for the Representation, M. Kromov, declared that the House of Representatives had the right to demand the expenditure of land without specifying the method by which this was to be attained. The opposition speakers recommended an extension of expenditure for the general development of agriculture. The speaker for the Government, M. "Back among 'em, I said—with the blow."

"Because the steno-grapher seemed drastically agitated."

"Why, you—"

At that Lombardy was off, making straight for the entrance of the building they had been watching.

As he advanced, placed, up himself easily. The trooper continued, "empty hands, please. I'm not here to hurt and strike the heart a blow."

The clip popped, the fire started. Lombardy was in the air, surrounded him, eagerly bent, head in hand toward the door. Others hurried to the door, and he was surrounded by Matthews. His as the disturbance was pushed out they gradually so sided.

"Needn't worry," said Fraser. "I'll listen to that rampus down the street."

The discordant music of a wheezy accordion was rending the night. No longer did it sound like a madman's wailing. It sounded the regular stamp of feet.

Now the trooper rounded the corner. A moment and through the window Fraser and the constables saw SIX DAYS AGO, JIMMY WINTERED OUT riding polo at the stockade.

Thirty poses, their legs tucked up together as so to leave a smoke hole, their names spread in a circular circle, supported a covering of tanned, battle-horn hides.

It took breathless hours. Barely an hour after Matthew rode away, Jim Bransome, square-chested earnest hantip and throat some a yard, sat at a stick pipe at the corner of the lodge.

Jim, the warrior, who had suffered the low cruelties and seized themselves in a sweat.

When Colonel Cummings learned that an interpreter had been found by snow, especially when their families are with them and their war ponies are behind them, they were not angry, their heads chief will be sharp enough to see the danger of the situation and not fight if he wants to leave the necks of his favorite. This, so far as the safety and comfort of our men are concerned, everything is being done.

Better news than that.

"Can't do it."

Cummings' brother lent his library. "We have been talking, and tonight we'll have a talk."

The two hold a short, whispered conversation in the dark.

"Let me have a few words with him."

Lounsbury you mean, honey, wasn't it?

 "The suspicion that had troubled the mind of the younger girl just allayed. 'Why, Dallas, how could you think such a thing about me? I'm a soldier's girl, not I am Mr. Lounsbury—but he don't like me.'

 She got up and went to the foot of her father's bed. When she reappeared she was carrying a soap box that held half her soap. On the robe case near, she took out and laid up to the light of the fire two boxes and a strip of folded cloth.

 The elder left the window and stood beside her.

 "These are what he gave me," went on Marylyn, putting forward the boxes. "And this," she showed the head work—"he asked me to make for him that night." Fortunately, the soap didn't ever speak of him.

 Dallas leaned down and touched her lip to the soldier's hair. "Blessy saint, what do you expect him to do? Hold me?"

 "You can't expect him to do anything but to put a present with the soldier!"

 Marylyn put away the box. "Any way he don't like me."

 "Like you? Why, he couldn't help it. There's a sweeter, prettier girl on the prairie than my little honey," declared Marylyn, but with lightning quickness called up the picture of her lover.

 "Now, that shows," said the elder girl. "Don't you worry another second. When I come again you'll see."

 So Dallas soothed and comforted her with the full salve, when she lifted her to her father's bed and covered her carefully. When she drew away a swinging blanket to let her feet droop lazily through—and saw that there were still tears on her sister's face—

 They returned the library.

 "Matthews," began Lounsbury, "you might as well go up now. If you may, you can't get at the head of his chain." He looked at the colonel's clock. "It's twelve. You can't possibly see him. If you did have a chance you might see him at eleven."

Signs of Restlessness in the Irish

For Manchester—Ready and

Dublin, April 21.—The change in Prime Ministers is likely to have important consequences on the political situation in Ireland. H. H. Asquith, the new Premier, is not trusted by the Nationalists, and his policy of conciliation is giving rise to a restlessness among the Irish people. The significance of the change in the Irish party is apparent from a comparison of the Irish party in Asquith's Government with the Irish party in the Government of Mr. Balfour.
The Irish party in Asquith's Government is generally regarded as being in favor of giving Mr. Asquith the vote. The position is complicated by the fact that the Irish party in the Government of Mr. Balfour is generally regarded as being in favor of giving Mr. Balfour the vote.

Manitoba William O'Brien is about

Referring to the creation of a new

THE VALUE OF GOOD, RED BLOOD

As the Foundation of Health, Strength and Beauty.

The ery of the human system is for good, red blood. Not that the blood is necessarily so impure as many suppose, but rather that it becomes thin and watery and lacking in the elements which go to build up new tissue and create vim, force and energy to run the machinery of the body.

Indications of weak blood may be:

Loss of Appetite, Impaired Digestion, Headaches, Dizziness and Fainting Spells, Heart Palpitation and Weakness, and Irregularities of the Vital Organs of the Body.

Instead of the well-rounded form there is thinness and angles. Instead of the healthy glow to the complexion there is pallor and sallowness. Instead of the snap and vigor of health there is the languor, irritability and depressed spirits which are sure to accompany weak blood.

Good, red blood is necessary to overcome these conditions, and because.

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

is composed of the most powerful blood-forming elements of nature, it is the most satisfactory restorative treatment obtainable. This great restorative increases the quantity and improves the quality of the blood. The nervous system is invigorated, the heart throbs more strongly, the vital organs resume their functions, new tissues are built up, the form is rounded out, the color returns to the wan cheeks, and strength and vigor are fully restored.

Could Not Do One Day's Work.

Mr. C. M. BROWN, Chicago, Ill., states: "I was completely run down, health fast fading, and could not do one day's work without being laid up for about two days afterwards. I felt weak, listless and miserable most of the time, and was often tired and discouraged because of my continued illness. When in this state I was advised to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and did so with most satisfactory results. It built up my system wonderfully, strengthened and restored my nerve and back away, and my feeling of languor and fatigue."
